Cookie Policy 2018

About Cookies

This website uses cookies. A cookie is a file containing small pieces of text that a web server sends to your web browser when you access an internet site. Cookies are stored on the browser or hard drive of your computer or device.

The main purpose of cookies is to streamline your use of the website; cookies make the interaction between users and websites faster and easier. They can't look into your computer or read any personal information or other material on your hard drive. They can't carry viruses or install anything harmful on your computer.

In all cases in which cookies are used on this site, the cookie will not collect any personally identifiable information.

How does RE Resource Group use cookies?

Here is a list of the main cookies we use, and what they are used for:

We use cookies to distinguish you from other users of our website and to provide a browsing experience that is unique to you. Cookies are used by us so that our website can remember what you have done whilst browsing, for instance, your log-in details, how far you have progressed with applying for a job.

Cookies can be in the form of session cookies or persistent cookies. Session cookies are deleted from your computer or device when you close your web-browser. Persistent cookies will remain stored on your computer or device until deleted or until they reach their expiry date. We use the following cookies:

Application cookies - These cookies are necessary in order for you to use the features like 'Apply Now' and navigate around the website.

Preference cookies - These cookies record information about choices you've made or settings to improve your visit. Data stored is anonymous.

Measurement cookies - We use Google Analytics to improve the functionality and usability of the site and the services we provide to site visitors. As with other cookies, user data is all anonymous. Please see Google Analytics' privacy policy here for further information. As with other cookies, user data is all anonymous.

Managing Cookies

RE Resource Group operates an 'implied consent' policy which means that through the use of our site we assume that you are happy with our cookie policy. If you are not happy, then you should either not visit this site, delete the cookies having visited the site, or visit the site using your browser's anonymous usage setting.

Most browsers allow you to refuse cookies. You may block our cookies by activating the setting on your browser that allows you to refuse the setting of all or some cookies. You can find out more about cookies and how to delete and control them on www.aboutcookies.org or click help in your browser menu.

Please note that if you choose to reject cookies, certain parts of this site may not be available to you or may not function properly.
